Dear Principal,

Subject: Compartmental Examination for Classes X and XII

This is further to our Circular dated December 4, 2018 regarding the introduction of the Compartmental Examinations for Classes X and XII from the Examination Year 2019 onwards. A copy of the Circular is attached herewith for your ready reference.

We have been receiving queries regarding the eligibility of candidates who can appear for the Compartmental Examinations.

For the benefit of all concerned, the detailed eligibility criteria are given below:

Eligibility to appear for the ICSE Class X Compartmental Examination:

- 1 Candidates who have failed to secure a Pass Certificate and have been awarded a PCNA (Pass Certificate Not Awarded) in the current year of the ICSE Examination.
- 2 Candidates who have passed in English and THREE other subjects.

Only those candidates who have appeared for a minimum of 5 of the registered subjects and have passed in English and three other subjects will be allowed to appear for the Compartmental Examination in any one of the failed subjects.

Eligibility to appear for the ISC Class XII Compartmental Examination:

- 1 Candidates who have failed to secure a Pass Certificate and have been awarded a PCNA (Pass Certificate Not Awarded) in the current year of the ISC Examination.
- 2 Candidates who have passed in English and TWO other subjects.

Only those candidates who have appeared for a minimum of 4 of the registered subjects and have passed in English and two other subjects will be allowed to appear for the Compartmental Examination in any one of the failed subjects.

Yours faithfully,

Gerry Arathoon

To: The Heads of all Schools

Dear Principal,

Subject: Compartmental Examination for Classes X and XII.

The Council for the Indian School Certificate Examinations has decided to introduce Compartmental Examinations for Classes X and XII from the Examination Year 2019 onwards.

The Compartmental Examinations for Classes X and XII will be conducted only once in the year, in the month of July. The Council shall give the candidates only one chance to clear the compartmental examination.

Eligibility: Candidates who have failed to secure a Pass Certificate and have been awarded a PCNA (Pass Certificate Not Awarded) in the current year of the ICSE/ISC Examination will be eligible to appear for the Compartmental Examination. However, the candidates should have passed in English and three other subjects in the ICSE Examination and in English and two other subjects in the ISC Examination in order to be eligible to appear for the Compartmental Examination.

Number of Subjects: In the Compartmental Examination, the candidates will be permitted to appear for ONE subject only.

Internal Assessment: All candidates appearing for the compartmental examination are required to compulsorily appear for the Theory Paper.

For ICSE, the internal marks of the subject, awarded to the candidate in the main examination will be carried forward. However, if the candidate was absent earlier during the internal assessment of the subject, then the candidate, in addition to taking the Theory examination may also submit the assignments/project work, which will then be assessed, and marks awarded. These marks are then to be submitted online through the CAREERS portal.

For ISC, the Practical/Project marks of the subject (where applicable), awarded to the candidate in the main examination will be carried forward. However, if the candidate was absent earlier either in Practical or during assessment of Project Work of the subject, then the candidate, in addition to taking the Theory examination may also submit the Project Work and/or appear for Practical, which will then be assessed, and marks awarded. These marks are then to be submitted online through the CAREERS portal.

Registration: Schools will need to register the candidates eligible for taking the compartmental examination online by mid - June. A one - week window will be made available for schools to register their candidates through the CAREERS portal.

Date of the Examination: The Council will fix the days for the conduct of the Compartmental Examination. This will be held in the month of July.

Result Declaration: The Result will be declared in the month of August.

Compartmental Examination Charges: The charges will be notified separately. Examination charges are to be paid online by schools. Payment will have to be made at the time of submitting the entries of candidates.

Issue of Statement of Marks and Pass Certificate: Those candidates who are successful at the Compartmental Examination and whose overall results have changed from PCNA (Pass Certificate Not Awarded) to PCA (Pass Certificate Awarded), must return the previous Statement of Marks in original to the Council through their school. On receipt of the same, the revised Statement of Marks & Pass Certificate will be sent to the candidates' school.

Candidates who are unsuccessful in the Compartmental Examination and do not qualify for award of a Pass Certificate, must also return their original Statement of Marks to the Council through their school and will be issued a revised Statement of Marks which will reflect the updated result of candidate as per the Council's record.

Unsuccessful / Absent candidates: Those candidates who are not successful or are absent at the Compartmental Examination will be required to re-appear in all the subjects for which he/she is registered, in the following year February - March Examination. The unsuccessful candidates will be permitted to re-appear for the examination once only in the year following their failure, but not thereafter, without further attendance at an affiliated and registered school.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Gerry Arathoon
